

Become a Supporting Member of New World Arts

New World Arts seeks to expand our human experience through live theater and creative media in order to promote growth and dialogue for artists and audiences and enrich the quality of life in our community.

Donors make that mission possible - we appreciate the continued support and input of the Michiana community.

Why Support New World Arts?

- NWA is a community center for visual & performing art that provides a home to local and regional artists
- NWA is playing a vital role in shaping the future of Goshen—building Goshen into a regional, vibrant, diverse, artistic center
- NWA celebrates our shared human diversity through the stories of people locally & globally
